The Pan-American Art Handbook

As stated by the Hon. W. I. Buchanan, Director General of the Pan-American Exposition is designed to be "a memorial of the ideals of the Exposition in Architecture Sculpture and the Fine Arts." It contains an Illustrated Catalogue of the Sculpture on the Exposition grounds with maps and plans, an illustrated catalogue of the buildings with official descriptions by the architects, and the following official articles.

The Purposes of the Exposition by John G. Milburn, President; A Sketch of Exposition History by the Mayor of Buffalo; A Short Sermon for Sightseers by Edward S, Martin; The Architectural Scheme by John M. Carrere, Chairman of the Board of Architects; How the Plan was Carried Out by William Welles Bosworth, Chief of the Exposition Architectural Bureau; The Color Scheme by Charles Y. Turner, Director of Color; The Exposition Illuminated by Henry Rustin, Chief of Mechanical and Electrical Bureau; From an Art Critic's Point of View by Mrs. Schuyler Van Rensselaer; The Sculpture Plan by Karl Bitter, Director of Sculpture; The Picturesque Midway by Frederick H. Taylor, Director of Concessions; The Fine Arts Exhibits by William A. Coffin, Director of Fine Arts. This book is sold upon the grounds for 25 cents and will be sent postpaid for 30 cents.

It is difficult to comprehend the symbolism of the sculpture and color schemes, the two most original features of the exposition without the Art Handbook.
